The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 30, to Tuesday July 3, 1750.

Gombroon, February 11.

CAPTAIN Liſle is ordered to hoiſt a Broad Pendant in India, where he is to ſtay three Years, and to diſpoſe the Ships under his Command to ſuch Parts of India as may be thought moſt for the Company's Intereſt. Two 20 Gun Ships are to cruize in this Gulph and Mocha. Madraſs is reſettled, and promiſes to be as flouriſhing a Place as ever. During the Time it was in Poſſeſſion of the French, none of the Subjects returned, and the Town was reduced to great Streights for Proviſions; but on the News of the Engliſh returning there, every Body got ready, and as ſoon as the Britiſh Flag was hoiſted, they came in from all Parts, and in 14 Days Time there was Merchants in Town that would take off four or five Bengall Cargoes for ready Money. Admiral Boſcawen made it a Free Port for Six Months. By Advices juſt arrived directly from Shawrook Shah's Camp, every Thing is well with him, except the Dearneſs of Proviſions, Bread being at 25 Mamoodys the Maud Fabreez, and every Thing elſe in Proportion. He is very good to his Subjects, and does Juſtice himſelf, but is under ſome ſmall Apprehenſions from the Ophgoons in Candahor; though, if they had an Inclination, 'tis thought they can do him no Damage, as they are divided into two Parties, one of which is firm to Shawrook; and for other Enemies he has none. He propoſes in the Spring to go to Spahaun, when he will be looked upon as eſtabliſhed, but not till then.

Conſtantinople, May 23. Zayde Efendi, the late Cheaia, who was ordered to Cairo and Mecca, has found Means to continue in our Neighbourhood. Yeſterday the Mufti was changed, and is ſucceeded by Multaza Efendi, a Man the Reverſe of the Character of the other, as he is conſpicuous for Humanity, Probity, and Diſintereſtedneſs.

Conſtantinople, June 3. Moſt of the Foreign Miniſters are retired into the Country on Account of a contagious Diſtemper appearing at Galata and Pera. The Grand Signior, who has been for ſome Time indiſpoſed, is now perfectly recovered. Several Perſons have been ſeized on Account of the laſt great Fire, by whoſe Informations it ſeems to appear pretty plainly that the Janiſſaries were greatly concerned in it. A few Days ago the Captain Pacha put to Sea with five Men of War and ſome light Veſſels, in order to viſit the Iſlands in the Archipelago, and to receive their annual Tributes. M. de Celſing, the Swediſh Envoy Extraordinary to this Court, had his firſt Audience of the Grand Vizier a few Days ago, to whom he delivered his Letters of Credence; ſince which he has been admitted to an Audience of the Grand Signior, to whom he delivered the rich Preſents ſent by the King his Maſter.

Lisbon, June 7. A few Days ago the King was ſo very much indiſpoſed, that the whole Court began to be in Fear for his Life, but having been let Blood, it happily removed the Diſorder; and though his Majeſty ſtill continues very weak, he appears again in Publick, and aſſiſts regularly at Divine Service in the Chapel of the Palace. Don Marc Antoine de Azevedo Coutinho, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, died here the 19th of laſt Month, aged 62; he was Miniſter Plenipotentiary from this Court to the Congreſs of Cambray, and after that reſided in the ſame Quality at the Courts of Paris and London.

Naples, June 16. On the 11th Inſtant the Duke of Calabria's Birth-Day was celebrated at Court, on which Occaſion their Majeſties received the Compliments of the Nobility and Foreign Miniſters. The ſame Day was launched a new Frigate, which is to be immediately equipped and employed with the Men of War and Gallies in cruizing againſt the Corſairs of Barbary. On the 14th Prince Don Antoine Filomarino was brought hither by a Detachment of the King's Troops, from the Frontiers of the Eccleſiaſtical State, and committed to one of the Priſons of this City.

Florence, June 20. The Treaties of Friendſhip and Commerce lately agreed upon with the Regencies of Tunis and Tripoly, are made publick, and contain much the ſame Clauſes with that concluded laſt Year with the Dey and Regency of Algiers. M. Manzi, who has reſided here for ſome Time in Quality of Miniſter from the Republick of Lucca, died laſt Tueſday Night of an Apoplectick Fit.

Parma, June 20. According to all Appearances the Court will continue for ſome Time at Colorno. The Marqueſs Pallavicini, whom the Duke our Sovereign had ſent to Turin, to compliment the Dutcheſs of Savoy his Siſter, returned to Colorno on Monday laſt, extremely pleaſed with the Reception he had met with from that Princeſs, who preſented him, at his Departure, with a Diamond Ring of very great Value.

Petersbourg, June 20. On the 17th Inſtant in the Morning the Empreſs ſet out for Peterſhoff, where ſhe propoſes to paſs beſt Part of the Summer; and in the Afternoon the Grand Duke and Grand Dutcheſs ſet out likewiſe to follow her Imperial Majeſty thither.

Stockholm, June 23. The King continues his Reſidence at Carlsbad, and drinks regularly the Waters, which have been of great Service to him. We have nothing material either from our Ports, or from Finland, where every Thing remains in perfect Tranquillity.

Prague, June 24. The almoſt continual Rains which have fallen ever ſince the Beginning of this Month, have ſo overflowed the Rivers, particularly the Moldau, and broke down ſo many Bridges, that ſeveral Regiments, which were on their March to relieve others, have been obliged to return to their Quarters, it being impoſſible for them to continue their March.

Turin,

[ Price Two-pence. ]

Turin, June 24. The Court is extremely brilliant, and the Rejoicings on Occaſion of the Arrival of the Dutcheſs of Savoy, are ſtill continued. The grand Fireworks, which have been for ſome Time preparing at Valentin, a Royal Palace ſituate upon the Borders of the Po, will be played off next Saturday, being the Duke of Savoy's Birth-Day: On this Occaſion the whole Court will go thither, where they propoſe to ſtay two or three Days.

Warſaw, June 27. We hear that the Dietines of Wyzogrod, Zacroczim, Warſaw, Great Poland, Cujavia and Poſnania, who aſſembled on the 23d Inſtant to chuſe Deputies to the approaching extraordinary Diet, had broke up without coming to any Choice; and we are informed that ſome others are like to do the ſame.

Vienna, June 27. Her Imperial Majeſty has conferred on the Arch-Duke Peter, their Imperial Majeſties third Son, the Regiment of Hohenzollern Cuiraſſiers. General Count de Maguire has been appointed to the Government of Clagenfurth in Carinthia, vacant by the Death of Field Marſhal Count de Neuhauſs. The Ceremony of Betrothing the Prince of Hohenzollern to the young Princeſs of Cordoue, was performed at Schonbrun on Thurſday, laſt in the Preſence of their Imperial Majeſties and the principal Lords and Ladies of the Court; and on Saturday laſt Cardinal de Kollonitſch, our Archbiſhop, gave them the benedictial Nuptials. The Departure of the Court for Stiria is fixed for the Beginning of next Month; and Prince Charles of Lorrain, and the Princeſs Charlotte his Siſter, are to accompany their Majeſties thither. The Count de Podewils, Envoy Extraordinary from Pruſſia, and the Marqueſs Durazzo, Miniſter from Genoa, have received their Letters of Revocation, and are preparing to return to their reſpective Courts. Field Marſhal Count Bathiani ſet out on the 15th for Stiria, to command in Chief the Troops which are to form a Camp there.

Hambourg, July 3. Some Diſputes having lately aroſe between the Maſter Joyners and their Journeymen, thoſe of moſt of the other Guilds or Companies ſided with the latter, which has occaſioned in this City ſeveral tumultuous Proceedings on their Part; but the Magiſtrates, apprehenſive of farther Conſequences from a Continuance of ſuch Diſorders, have found Means to put an End to them, by promiſing a ſtrict Enquiry into the Grievances of the Journeymen Joyners, and Satisfaction accordingly: At the ſame Time they have eſtabliſhed a particular Court of Judicature and Redreſs, to be compoſed of the ſecond Preſiding Burgomaſter, four Senators, ſome Members of the other Colleges, and of ſome of the Burghers, for taking Cognizance of all Matters relative to the ſeveral incorporated Companies of Handicraft Men in Hambourg.

Hanover, July 3. Prince Louis of Brunſwick Wolfenbuttle took Leave of the King on Wedneſday laſt, and Yeſterday his Highneſs left this Place on his Return to Brunſwick. His Majeſty continues extremely well.

Paris, July 3. The Court continues to reſide at Compeigne, where the King frequently takes the Diverſion of Hunting; but 'tis ſaid his Majeſty propoſes returning to Verſailles towards the End of the Month. The Dauphineſs is now entred into the ninth Month of her Pregnancy; ſhe is in perfect Health, and often walks in the Gardens of Verſailles, where vaſt Preparations are making for Rejoycings in Caſe ſhe ſhould be brought to Bed of a Prince. The Dauphine propoſes ſetting out for Compeigne on Monday next, in order to ſee the Camp which is forming there, and which is to continue during his Majeſty's Reſidence at that Palace.

Berlin, July 4. The King has appointed Colonel Canitz to be a Major General; and Meſſ. Katt, Leckow and Reck, to be Majors, the firſt to the Regiment of Foot of Dohna, the ſecond to that of Canitz, and the third to that of Kalneim. And his Majeſty has conferred on M. Maſſon the Office of firſt Preſident of the Chamber of Domains at Konigsberg, in the room of his late Father.

Franckfort, July 5. The Deputies of the Circle of the Upper Rhine have this Day unanimouſly elected his Serene Highneſs the Landgrave of Heſſe Darmſtadt, to be Colonel of the Troops of that Circle.

Hague, July 10. M. Des de Broſes, General of Horſe in the Saxon Service, and his Poliſh Majeſty's Envoy Extraordinary to the States-General, died here laſt Wedneſday Morning, in a very advanced Age. M.
